Dear []

I am forwarding herewith a copy of a document entitled Free Poland - Special Report Nr 3, together with its English-language translation. Our preliminary analysis indicates it probably is a Polish Intelligence Service (PIS) forgery designed to retaliate against the activities of Free Poland.

Free Poland is a right-wing Polish emigre organization, based in New York City, which over the course of the past year has exposed in its publications a number of Polish, Soviet and Czechoslovak officials, most stationed in the United States, as intelligence agents. There have been indications that the Polish Government is seriously concerned about the activities of this organization, which allegedly consists of more recent emigres who are inclined toward aggressive anti-Communist measures. Unfortunately, it appears the PIS inaccurately suspects Free Poland to be associated in some manner with the United States Government, possibly being a form of retaliation for exposures of Agency personnel.

The document was mailed from Stockholm and Vienna in August 1976 to an undetermined number of individuals and organizations associated with Polish emigre activities in West Europe and the United States.

Your attention is called in particular to the inclusion on page 3 (page 4 of the translation) of the names of Jozef Goldblat and Jerzy Sidorowicz. Our records reflect Jozef Goldblat(t), born 7 January 1923, Lwow and Jerzy Sidorowicz, born 23 March 1936, Krakow []

To assist our analysis of this document, we would appreciate any information you may be able to provide concerning the size and nature of the distribution of this document as well as your views on why Goldblatt and Sidorowicz were included with the other 17 individuals denounced therein. We also would appreciate traces on Stefan Michnik-Szwedowicz, on whom we have no record.
